LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Hymn

Christ for the World We Sing

Hymnal #537

Christ for the world we sing! The world to Christ we bring with loving zeal; the poor, and them that mourn,
the faint and overborne, sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
whom Christ doth heal.

Christ for the world we sing! The world to Christ we bring with joyful song; the new-born souls, whose days, reclaimed from error's ways, inspired with hope and praise,
to Christ belong.

Samuel Wolcott (1813-1886)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

THE FIRST READING: Ephesians 2:11-22

Remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called “the uncircumcision” by those who are called “the circumcision” —a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands— remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

The Word of the Lord.

PSALM: Psalm 89:20-37

20 *I have found David my servant; * with my holy oil have I anointed him.*

21 *My hand will hold him fast * and my arm will make him strong.*

22 *No enemy shall deceive him, * nor any wicked man bring him down.*

23 *I will crush his foes before him * and strike down those who hate him.*

24 *My faithfulness and love shall be with him, * and he shall be victorious through my Name.*

25 *I shall make his dominion extend * from the Great Sea to the River.*

26 *He will say to me, 'You are my Father, * my God, and the rock of my salvation.'*

27 *I will make him my firstborn * and higher than the kings of the earth.*

28 *I will keep my love for him for ever, * and my covenant will stand firm for him.*

29 *I will establish his line for ever * and his throne as the days of heaven."*

30 *"If his children forsake my law * and do not walk according to my judgments;*

31 *If they break my statutes * and do not keep my commandments;*

32 *I will punish their transgressions with a rod * and their iniquities with the lash;*

33 *But I will not take my love from him, * nor let my faithfulness prove false.*

34 *I will not break my covenant, * nor change what has gone out of my lips.*

35 *Once for all I have sworn by my holiness: * 'I will not lie to David.*

36 *His line shall endure for ever * and his throne as the sun before me;*

37 *It shall stand fast for evermore like the moon, * the abiding witness in the sky.' "*

THE GOSPEL: Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Response Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Offertory Hymn

Christ is Made the Sure Foundation (5:30)

Hymnal #518

How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings (11:00am)

S. Liddle (Hope Dedrick, solo)

Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone, chosen of the Lord, and precious, binding all the Church in one;
holy Zion's help for ever, and her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city, dearly loved of God on high,
in exultant jubilation pours perpetual melody;
God the One in Three adoring in glad hymns eternally.

To this temple, where we call thee, come, O Lord of Hosts, today;
with thy wonted loving-kindness hear thy servants as they pray,
and thy fullest benediction shed within its walls always.

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain;
what they gain from thee, for ever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

Latin, ca. 7th cent.; tr. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861, after John Mason Neale (1818-1856), alt

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Hymnal #645

The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am his, and he is mine for ever.

Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me, and on his shoulder gently laid, and home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me; thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight; thy unction grace bestoweth; and oh, what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never: Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house for ever.

Henry Williams Baker (1821-1877); para. Psalm 23

Postcommunion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us

Hymnal #708

Savior, like a shepherd lead us; much we need thy tender care; in thy pleasant pastures feed us; for our use thy folds prepare. Blessed Jesus! Thou hast bought us, thine we are.

Early let us seek thy favor, early let us learn thy will; do thou, Lord, our only Savior, with thy love our bosoms fill. Blessed Jesus! Thou hast loved us: love us still.
