LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prelude

The Spirit of the Lord is Upon Me

The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

The Lessons

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12:12:12-31a

¹²Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. ¹⁴Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many members, yet one body. ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²²On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; ²⁴whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, ²⁵that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? ^{31a}But strive for the greater gifts.

The Psalm: Psalm 19

²*One day tells its tale to another, * and one night imparts knowledge to another.*

³*Although they have no words or language, * and their voices are not heard,*

⁴*Their sound has gone out into all lands, * and their message to the ends of the world.*

⁵*In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; **

it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;

it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

⁶*It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; **

nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

⁷*The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; **

the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

⁸*The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart; **

the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.

⁹*The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; **

the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

¹⁰*More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold,  sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

¹¹*By them also is your servant enlightened, * and in keeping them there is great reward.*

¹²*Who can tell how often he offends? * cleanse me from my secret faults.*

¹³*Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; **

then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

¹⁴*Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, **

O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

GOSPEL: Luke 4:14-21

¹⁴Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. ¹⁶When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: ¹⁸"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." ²⁰And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

One Bread, One Body

One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

1. Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man no more.

One bread...

2. Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all.

One bread...

3. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one for all.

One bread...

Closing Hymn

Across the Lands (verses 1, 2)

Verse 1: You're the Word of God the Father From before the world began Ev'ry star and ev'ry planet Has been fashioned by Your hand
All creation holds together By the power of Your voice
Let the skies declare Your glory, Let the land and seas rejoice

Chorus: You're the author of creation. You're the Lord of ev'ry man.
And Your cry of love rings out Across the lands

Verse 2: Yet You left the gaze of angels, Came to seek and save the lost
And exchanged the joy of heaven For the anguish of a cross
With a prayer You fed the hungry With a word You stilled the sea
Yet how silently You suffered That the guilty may go free

Across the Lands (verse 3)

Verse 3: With a shout You rose victorious, Wresting victory from the grave
And ascended into heaven Leading captives in Your wake
Now You stand before the Father Interceding for Your own
