LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prelude

Lord, when you came to the seashore

Willard F. Jabusch, b.1930

1. Lord, when you came to the seashore You weren't seeking the wise or the wealthy,
But only asking that I might follow. O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing,
Kindly smiling, my name you were saying; All I treasured, I have left on the sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.
2. Lord, you knew what my boat carried: Neither money nor weapons for fighting,
But nets for fishing, my daily labor. O Lord, in my eyes...
3. Lord, have you need of my labor, Hands for service, a heart made for loving,
My arms for lifting the poor and broken? O Lord, in my eyes...
4. Lord, send me where you would have me, To a village, or heart of the city;
I will remember that you are with me. O Lord, in my eyes...

Speak O Lord

Opening Hymn

My Life for You

Yancy

Verse 1: When the sun goes down and the stars shine, they fill up the sky with their night light.
By Your design they all have a place. Their light shines to serve the world You made.
Just like the moon in the midnight sky, help me, Lord, to shine You bright.

Chorus

I want to serve, I want to give, I want to live my life for You.
So here I am; Take all of me. I want to live my life for You.

Verse 2: When the evening comes at the end of the day, and the lightning bugs come out to play,
I'm reminded once again, that You have made me and You have a plan. All creation sings Your praise.
So from the start to the end of the day,

I want to serve, I want to give, I want to live my life for You.

The Lessons

The Epistle – 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

¹Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, ²through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

³For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, ⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

The Psalm – Psalm 138

- ¹I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; * before the gods I will sing your praise.
- ²I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, * because of your love and faithfulness;
- ³For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.
- ⁴When I called, you answered me; * you increased my strength within me.
- ⁵All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD, * when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- ⁶They will sing of the ways of the LORD, * that great is the glory of the LORD.
- ⁷Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly; * he perceives the haughty from afar.
- ⁸Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.
- ⁹The LORD will make good his purpose for me; * O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

GOSPEL: Luke 5:1-11

¹Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ²he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” ⁹For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” ¹¹When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Closing Hymn

The Summons (verses 1-3)

Text: John L. Bell, b.1949

1. Will you come and follow me If I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known, Will you let my life be grown In you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare Should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer prayer In you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name? Will you set the pris'ners free And never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, And do such as this unseen, And admit to what I mean In you and you in me?

Dismissal

Postlude

The Summons (verses 4, 5)

4. Will you love the 'you' you hide If I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside And never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found To reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and sound In you and you in me?
5. Lord, your summons echoes true When you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you And never be the same.
In your company I'll go Where your love and footsteps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow In you and you in me.
